Reading 	2. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ifXlc0QI2kY Watch the story of The Rainbow Fish on YouTube or read the story with an adult if you have the book at home! Then, complete the different writing activities each day!
Monday	Rainbow fish is unique because of his shiny, colourful scales. He likes his scales because they make him feel special. Have a think about what makes you unique and special, and then make an 'all about me' page.
Tuesday	At the start of the story, the rainbow fish wasn't very kind to others. The sea creatures taught him how to be a good friend. Can you write a step by step guide to being a good friend?
Wednesday	Being kind to others is one of the things that makes you a good friend. Can you think of a time one of your friends has been really kind to you? Can you write down your memory of that time?
Thursday	There are lots of ways you can be kind to others. Can you write down some acts of kindness (for example helping make your lunch, holding a door open for someone or sharing one of your toys). Can you write some acts of kindness on individual pieces of paper and put them in a jar. You could pick one each day and try to complete it.
Friday	Can you write a book review for the story of the Rainbow Fish? What did you like about the story? Did you have a favourite part?

Understanding the World 	3. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hwtLABCaZbs Watch the video above to learn about clown fish. Use any books you have, research on the internet and ask others in your home. What can you find out about clown fish? Make a list of your findings. Can you write up to 4 sentences about clown fish? Ask an adult to take a photo of your hard work and upload it to Tapestry for us to see! You might even spot a snail and take a photo of you with it! We'll be waiting!
