

Lynnfield Primary School

January/February Update 2025

Dates to Remember

We break up for half term on Friday 21st February 2025. Children return Monday 3rd March 2025.

Nationally accredited by Elklan and OCN London

We are pleased to share with you all that Lynnfield has been successful in gaining Elklan Communication Friendly Status! The work carried out toward this will ensure our children are supported throughout their communication journey.

Attendance

Please make use of information available to determine if your child is unwell enough to miss school. Missing just 11 days of school across the year can push your child in to 'attendance concern'. If your child is to unwell to attend, please let us know on the first day of absence.

If you have any queries or concerns, or you just need some advice about if your child should be in school, please don't hesitate to

Reading Books

We would be very grateful if all families could check for any stray reading books that may be at home that could be brought back into school. We have noticed that quite a number of books, especially our Read Write Inc range of books, are missing. Thanks in advance for your help.

We would like to take this opportunity to welcome Mrs Nightscales to our Lynnfield family. She will be based in the school office during the Spring Term while Mrs Waite is away.

Miss Britt left us at the end of the autumn term and we are sure you will join us in wishing her well as she starts her new job.
